GENERAL INFORMATION

REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP

Registered Apprenticeship is a proven model of job preparation that combines paid on-the-job training (OJT)\(^1\) with Related Instruction to progressively increase workers’ skill levels and wages. Registered Apprenticeship is also a business-driven model that provides an effective way for employers to recruit, train, and retain highly skilled workers. It allows employers to develop and apply industry standards to training programs, thereby increasing productivity and the quality of the workforce. As an “earn and learn” strategy, Registered Apprenticeship offers jobseekers immediate employment opportunities with sustainable wages and advancement along a career pathway. Graduates of Registered Apprenticeship programs receive nationally recognized, portable credentials, and their training may often be applied towards further post-secondary education.

All Registered Apprenticeship programs consist of the following five core components:

A. Business Involvement – Businesses are the foundation of every Registered Apprenticeship program. The skills needed for workforce success, provided through business input, form the core of the model. Businesses must play an active role in building Registered Apprenticeship programs and are involved in every step of their design and execution.

B. On-the-Job Training – Every Registered Apprenticeship program includes structured OJT. Companies hire Registered Apprentices and provide hands-on training from an experienced mentor. This training is developed by mapping the skills and knowledge that the Registered Apprentice must learn over the course of the program to become fully proficient at the job.

C. Related Instruction\(^2\) – Apprentices receive Related Instruction or classroom style training that complements the OJT. This instruction helps refine the technical and academic skills that apply to the job. A community college, technical school or college, an apprenticeship training school, non-profit, community-based organization (CBO), industry, labor organization, business association, or business may offer Related Instruction. The instruction can be provided at the school, online, or at the work site.

D. Rewards for Skill Gains – Registered Apprentices receive increases in pay as their skills and knowledge increase. Progressive wage gains reward and motivate Registered Apprentices as they advance through training and become more productive and skilled at their job.

E. National Occupational Credential – Every graduate of a Registered Apprenticeship program receives a nationally recognized credential, referred to as a certificate of completion. This portable credential signifies that the Registered Apprentice is fully qualified to successfully perform an occupation. Many Registered Apprenticeship programs, particularly in high-growth industries such as healthcare, advanced manufacturing, and transportation, also offer interim credentials as Registered Apprentices master skills included in their career pathway.

1 Also known as “on the job learning” (OJL).
2 The U.S. Department of Labor now refers to Related Technical Instruction (RTI) as Related Instruction, see 20 CFR 680.
REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP IN MARYLAND

The U.S. Registered Apprenticeship System is authorized through the National Apprenticeship Act of 1937. Maryland Department of Labor Division of Workforce Development and Adult Learning (MD Labor DWDAL) serves as the “State Apprenticeship Agency” and, in consultation with the Maryland Apprenticeship and Training Council, is responsible for the following functions:

A. Registering apprenticeship programs that meet federal and state standards;
B. Issuing certificates of completion to Registered Apprentices;
C. Encouraging the development of new programs through outreach and technical assistance;
D. Protecting the safety and welfare of Registered Apprentices; and,
E. Assuring that all programs provide high-quality training.

MARYLAND LAW

Under MD Ann. Code, Labor and Employment Article §11-604, MD Labor administers a three-year pilot to serve Registered Apprenticeship programs in the construction industry that hire Registered Apprentices that (1) have been formerly incarcerated and (2) live in Baltimore City and Dorchester County. The pilot is for 2020 to 2022.

In 2020, the law was amended to include an annual report on the progress of the pilot program each year to the General Assembly.

MD Labor is developing regulations for this pilot. The regulation will be publicly available once finalized.4

4 The proposed regulations can be found at 47: 26 Md. R. 1111-1112 (12-18-20): http://www.dsd.state.md.us/MDR/4726.pdf.
REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP FOR FORMERLY INCARCERATED INDIVIDUALS GRANT PILOT

PURPOSE

MD Labor may receive an allocation of up to $100,000 each year for three years from the annual State budget to distribute as grants for the Registered Apprenticeship for Formerly Incarcerated Individuals (Pilot). This pilot awards Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors and employers flexible funding to offset the cost of registering new apprentices by granting a maximum of $1,000 per new eligible Registered Apprentice, until program funds are exhausted. Eligible Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors and employers may receive up to $25,000 per year. The goals of this program are:

A. To develop a well-trained, productive construction workforce which meets the needs of the State’s economy;
B. To encourage employers to hire formerly incarcerated individuals in the construction industry; and,
C. To help employers offset additional costs, if any, associated with hiring Registered Apprentices.

ELIGIBILITY AND OUTREACH

To be eligible for the Registered Apprenticeship for Formerly Incarcerated Individuals (Pilot), a Registered Apprenticeship Sponsor or employer must be engaged in the building and construction trade and have hired formerly incarcerated Registered Apprentices who:

A. Have been employed by the Registered Apprenticeship Sponsor or employer for at least seven months;
B. Are enrolled in the first year of a Registered Apprenticeship program registered with DWDAL; and,
C. Live in Baltimore City or Dorchester County.

Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors and employers can only apply for and receive one grant award per Registered Apprentice.

MD Labor’s business service staff, Local Veteran Employment Representatives (LVER), Apprenticeship Navigators, and Reentry Navigators shall conduct outreach to ensure Maryland’s Registered Apprenticeships and participating businesses are aware of the opportunities available to them via this pilot. MD Labor encourages Local Workforce Development Areas (Local Areas) to conduct outreach. Once an interested business is identified, local business service, Regional Business Navigators, Apprenticeship Navigators, and Reentry Navigators are available to assist in the completion and submission of the application. Staff may also refer the business to the MD Labor Director of Apprenticeship and Training for additional questions as needed.

In 2019, the Maryland General Assembly enacted House Bill 994, “Labor and Employment - Criminal Record Screening Practices (Ban the Box),” under Maryland Constitution, Chapter 8 of 2020. This Chapter prohibits employers who employ 15 or more full-time employees from requiring an applicant for employment, before the first in-person interview, to disclose information regarding the criminal record of the applicant except under certain circumstances. Local jurisdictions may have additional restrictions regarding obtaining criminal record information during the hiring process. While Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors and employers cannot ask for criminal background information on applications, the Maryland Workforce Exchange (MWE) can provide referrals of eligible jobseekers to help connect with a Registered Apprenticeship program.

The MWE serves as the data system for a number of MD Labor programs. It is used for reporting as well as labor market information needs for its job candidates, workforce professionals, and employers. Currently, Personally Identifiable Information (PII) and sensitive information are stored and protected through the MWE, where partners can only see information that is pertinent to their work.

MD Labor and Local Area staff may alert Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors and employers that a jobseeker has a criminal background if the jobseeker selects “Yes” to the question “Have you been arrested / convicted of a crime?” in the Maryland Workforce Exchange (MWE).7 The MWE contains the following notice to alert jobseekers of this function:

“Please note: You are not required to reveal your criminal background information. State law and some local laws limit when and if certain employers, or a person acting on behalf of employers, may ask you about your criminal background. If you share your criminal background history here, please be aware that you may be entitled to additional services and programs and that the Department and its partners may reveal your criminal background history to potential employers seeking to hire you.”

APPLYING FOR THE REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP FOR FORMERLY INCARCERATED INDIVIDUALS GRANT PILOT

Application Submission

To apply for funding through the Registered Apprenticeship for Formerly Incarcerated Individuals (Pilot), a Registered Apprenticeship sponsor or business must first complete the application provided in Attachment A – Sample Application and submit the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services I-9 “Employment Eligibility Verification” form.8 Eligible businesses should submit completed applications electronically to dmatapprenticeshipandtraining-labor@maryland.gov for consideration by the reviewer. Applications will be accepted and reviewed on a rolling, first-come, first-served basis.

The DWDAL Director of Apprenticeship and Training (or designee) is the application reviewer for the pilot. The reviewer for the pilot must review submitted applications in a timely manner. The reviewer must ensure that approved applications meet eligibility requirements.

7 “Have you been arrested / convicted of a crime?” is a required question in the MWE. Options include: “Yes”, “No”, and “I do not wish to answer.” Employers in the MWE do not have access to jobseekers’ responses to this question.

Application Approval/Denial

MD Labor must inform applicants via email of approvals or denials within 14 business days of application receipt.

If approved, the MD Labor Office of Workforce Development shall provide the applicant with a Grant Award Notification to be signed by the applicant. A sample of this notification is provided through Attachment B – Sample Grant Award Notification.

Approved Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors and employers must submit completed grant agreements and a completed W-9 to MD Labor for review within 14 business days of award notification by email at dlmatpapprenticeshipandtraining-labor@maryland.gov. After the agreement has been formally executed, MD Labor shall provide funds to the approved grantee.

MD Labor will deny incomplete applications. If a grant application is denied, the MD Labor Office of Workforce Development shall provide the applicant with a Grant Denial Notification containing feedback on the application. A sample of this notification is provided through Attachment C – Sample Grant Denial Notification. A denied applicant may request for reconsideration of the decision. The request must be emailed to dlmatpapprenticeshipandtraining-labor@maryland.gov within 15 calendar days of the date of the Grant Denial Notification and (1) be in writing and state the grounds for the request; and, (2) state the reasons why the application should be reconsidered and approved. The DWDAL Assistant Secretary (or designee) will consider all requests for reconsideration and provide a written response to the applicant within 14 business days of request receipt. The DWDAL Assistant Secretary (or designee)’s decision is final.

Any of the time periods under this section, “Application Approval/Denial,” may be extended by the MD Labor DWDAL Assistant Secretary in their sole discretion.
REPORTING, MONITORING, AND RECORD RETENTION

REPORTING

MD Labor must submit an annual report to the Maryland General Assembly by September 30th of 2020-2022. The report shall include, in accordance with § 2–1257 of the State Government Article, the following information for the immediately preceding calendar year:

A. The number and types of employers that received grants under the pilot;
B. The grant amount received by each employer;
C. The total number of Registered Apprentices and number of Registered Apprentices that participated in the pilot; and,
D. The progress in achieving the purposes of the pilot.

MONITORING

MD Labor, as it deems necessary, may supervise, evaluate, and provide guidance or direction on the eligibility terms under which this grant is awarded. However, failure of MD Labor to supervise, evaluate, or provide guidance and direction shall not relieve the grantee of any liability for failure to comply with the terms of the grant award.

RECORD RETENTION

Maryland requires participating programs to retain grant fiscal records for at least three years, or until all audit and litigation issues are resolved, whichever is later. If any litigation, claim, or audit is started before the expiration of the three-year period, the records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action has been taken.

All records, both electronic and physical, must be maintained in accordance with DWDAL’s policy concerning security10 to maintain confidentiality and protect PII. PII is participant-level and employee data that either by itself, or combined with other data, can link to a specific individual or identity.

When emailing documents containing PII, all grantees and MD Labor staff must use password-protection, encryption-preferred, strong authentication procedures, or other security controls to make the information unusable by unauthorized individuals. Physical records must be kept in locked offices or file rooms. If the file room is shared with other programs, and/or staff other than staff authorized for this program have access to that room, then the files must be maintained in locked cabinets.

10 DWDAL’s current and archived policies are available at the following link:
http://www.labor.maryland.gov/employment/mpi/.
FAIR PRACTICES AND ACCESSIBILITY

It is MD Labor’s policy that all persons have equal opportunity and access to services and facilities without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status.
