WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO TAKE THE GED® TEST IN MARYLAND?

Only Maryland residents are eligible to take the GED® test in Maryland. Candidates must be at least 17 years of age and not enrolled in or attending any high school. Candidates under 19 years of age must submit a School Withdrawal/Exemption Form (www.dllr.maryland.gov/gedmd/gedformswithdrawal.shtml) to the GED® Office. Students enrolled in a Home School program should contact their school system for eligibility exceptions.

HOW DO I REGISTER FOR THE GED® TEST?

Go to www.GED.com to create an account and register. Once you have created an account, supplied the required information, and are ready to take the test, select an authorized test center location to schedule a date and time to test. The best way to secure an available seat at a test center is to schedule one or two modules a day. After selecting a test center, date, and time, you will be required to make payment for the testing modules using a major credit card, debit card, or gift card. Each initial test module is $11.25. Retests cost $10.00 per module. There is a limit of three attempts per module per calendar year. The test is available in English and Spanish; however, in Maryland the RLA module must be taken in English.

PROPER IDENTIFICATION NEEDED TO TEST

To be admitted to a GED® test center, you will need to bring one of the following:

- Valid (not expired) Maryland Motor Vehicle Administration (MVA) Driver's License, MD MVA Learner's Permit, or MD MVA Identification (ID) Card
- Active Duty Military Identification Card

If none of the above are attainable, you can apply for a waiver. A waiver form can be found at www.dllr.maryland.gov/gedmd/gedformsid.shtml.

ACCOMMODATIONS

To request accommodations for the GED® test, check the Request Accommodations box during online registration and follow directions. You will be required to submit certain documentation.
