REVIEW OF THE RECORD

After a review of the record, the Board adopts the hearing examiner's findings of fact. The Board makes the following additional findings of fact:

The claimant only began her self-employment because she had been unsuccessful in securing other employment for a period of time. The claimant performs counseling services and works where and when she can secure clients. The claimant has actively sought employment in this same field since September of 2008, by making three or more job contacts nearly each week.
