REVIEW ON THE RECORD

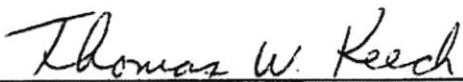

Upon review of the record in this case, the Board of Appeals reverses the decision of the Hearing Examiner.

During the week ending November 10, 1990, the claimant made one contact for work. The prospective employer offered her a job, and the parties immediately began negotiations about the details of the employment. These negotiations proceeded quickly, and the claimant began full-time employment the following week. Under all of these circumstances, the Board concludes that the claimant's pursuing this job was reasonable course of action more likely to bear fruit than making another contact. The claimant was actively seeking work within the meaning of Section 4(c) of the law.

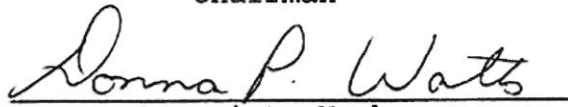

DECISION

The claimant was actively seeking work, within the meaning of Section 4(c) of the Maryland Unemployment Insurance Law. No disqualification from benefits is imposed for the week ending November 10, 1990.

The decision of the Hearing Examiner is reversed.

Claimant-Present

FINDINGS OF FACT

The claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits establishing a benefit year beginning September 2, 1990 and a weekly benefit amount of $138.00. The claimant was denied benefits for her failure to make the required number of job contacts for the period beginning November 4, 1990 through November 17, 1990. She timely filed an appeal on that determination.

At an interview in the Cumberland local office, the claimant
